

Unit 3: The Legislative Branch

At the end of this unit I can define and explain the significance of the following:

Census		Logrolling
House of Representatives	Senate	Conference committee
Constituents	Veto	Arm
Elastic	Pigeonhole	Speaker of the House
Lobbyist	Floor Debate	Rules Committee
President Pro Tempore	Article	Standing Committee
Congressional Districts	Cloture	Great
Censure	Majority	Minority Whip
Majority	Minority Leader	President of the

Learning Targets:

I can describe the _____ of the Legislative Branch.

I can name the two bodies that make up the Legislative _____

I can trace how many Representatives and Senators are in _____

I can explain how many Representatives and _____ each state receives.

I can explain what the qualifications are and what the _____ of term for both Representatives and Senators is.

I can contrast how the House of Representatives and Senate are _____

I can summarize how a bill becomes a law and how a bill can be _____ during the bill process.

I can trace and explain the powers of _____

I can explain how the other branches (Executive and Judicial) _____ Legislative Branch.

I can name who represents us (Boone County) in _____